Entered at the Postoffice in Goldsboro as second class mail matter.

The chamber of commerce in Petersburg, Va., has bought the biggest newspaper in its city and will proceed to boom its town directly.

England, France, Germany, the United States and Holland should be pulling together to be able to get the upper hand of Castro.

Chairman Mack's monthly will almost necessarily trespass upon Mr. Bryan's Commemorative. There is room, however, for both.

The fight that Europe and America are putting up against one Cipriano Castro will appear ridiculous in history.

Cuba proposes to establish a lottery and restore bull fights in order to demonstrate her independence.

The Aldrich tariff has supplanted the Payne act, although there is no great difference between the two.

Georgia is said to have 1,300 illicit still and yet moonshine whisky is not in great supply on the market.

Crazy Snake will not be open to vaudeville engagements until he allows himself to be captured.

Women's hats have been revised upward until they cut off all views on the stage or even in the pulpit.

The German scientist who started the whale's milk story is needed at the University of Chicago.

Edward Everett Hale has been asked to issue a Castro edition of his "Man Without a Country."

The beasts of the jungle see a pair of heavy eyeglasses and two rows of teeth approaching.

The cold, calculating surgery of the Senate has not greatly changed the Payne bill.

It is reported that Chancellor Day has declined to accept an invitation to join the Optimists' Club. No doubt he argued that he wouldn't feel congenial with the rest of the members. An optimist's club is no place for a man who nurses a chronic grouch.

No doubt the peach crop got more warnings in the last few days than it knew what to do with. The peach crop gets along fairly well considering what an avalanche of this kind of business it has to take care of.

Mombasa ought to be very grateful to Mr. Roosevelt for putting it in the date-line class.

OUR FUTURE POPULATION.

The average family a century ago in this country consisted of 5.8 persons. Now it consists of 4.6 persons. Here is a loss in a century of more than a person to a family. A like loss a century hence—and it seems to be coming—will cut the size of the average American family down to 3.4 persons, and that would be a small family indeed.

Higher costs of living and changes in social customs have much to do with the reduced birth rate. And it is doubtful indeed whether immigration is so helpful as some think it is in maintaining the birth rate. More males than females seek employment here, and the custom of migrating back and forth operates to keep women in the old countries.

The estimate of increase in the population of this country cannot be judged by past increases. The growth of trusts will continue to add to the cost of living and the birth rate will be decreased and after a few more decades our ten-year increases will approximate those of the countries from which we came. We may not stagnate as France is doing, but we will approximate that condition.

EVERY HOUR OF THE DAY.

J. H. Hill & Son the reliable drug-gists of Goldsboro, are having calls for "HINDIPO," the new Kidney Cure and Nerve Tonic that they are selling under a positive guarantee.

Its merits are becoming the talk of the town and everybody wants to try it, and why not? It costs nothing if it doesn't do you good—not one cent.

They don't want your money if it does not benefit you, and will cheerfully refund the money. Try it to-day.

FRANCIS MARION CRAWFORD.

The death of F. Marion Crawford, the author, will be a source of regret to many of his readers. As a writer of fiction he had a number of rare talents. Novel reading is largely a matter of taste, and whatever else may be said of Crawford, in some respects he was a remarkable writer. There were few novelists in the last generation who were so careful in the collection and handling of materials. That was because he was a sincere student, a habit which many of the modern novelists seem to have largely abandoned, depending on the imaginative element almost entirely to hold the readers interest. In the depiction of character Crawford maintained a high standard of excellence. This was largely the result of his wide travels and a keen power of observation which often marks the man of education and taste. He was one of the most discriminating of the modern story writers, and in not a few of his works it is easy to detect the conviction of the author that the successful novel must have an element of the superhuman, an idea which Bulwer Lytton developed with great success to what is known as the selfish reader, the man who reads more for amusement and excitement than for instruction or improvement.

Francis Marion Crawford was a splendidly educated man. He inherited a taste for the artistic and the beautiful from his father, who was a sculptor of merit. The son possessed an analytical mind which was frequently suggested in his power of description. Some of his work in this respect will compare favorably with the best in the language. The French academy conferred on him honors of distinction in recognition of his merits as a writer, which is in itself an argument that he was a man of more than ordinary talent in his chosen field of literary work.

Mr. Crawford was a voluminous writer. His works number more than twenty-five. This is where he erred. The danger of writing too much is always more or less serious with a man of Crawford's training, temperament and tastes. There be some who do not admire on the whole the works of the man. They are justified in some respects in this attitude. But there can be no doubt of Crawford's genius as well as of his ability in certain kinds of literary production, and especially that which appeals to the dramatic element in the reader. "In the Palace of the King" is one of the best known of all the writer's works, and he it said that it is a distinctly meritorious performance in both conception and treatment. The fact that his many adverse critics could not succeed in materially injuring his reputation is a strong argument in favor of his talents and attainments as a novelist.

The more we see of them the more we are inclined to the view that the women folks do not deserve to be punished with such afflictions as the wash-tub effects this spring.

Still, the Mexicans seem to have acquired the Diaz habit by reason of the fact that he has the qualifications to keep in touch with the man who wields the ballot.

"Affinity" Earle has disappeared from home, and the question is how long the will favor the country by remaining in complete isolation?

Trusts dressed up in infant-industry clothes can't fool the man who sits helpless while watching the cost of living soar.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

NEWS IN GENERAL.

Carefully Gleaned and Boiled Down For Busy Readers.

Nashville, Tenn., April 15.—For Duncan E. Cooper and Robin J. Cooper, recently convicted of the murder of former United States Senator E. W. Carmack, attorneys filed a motion for a new trial today.

New Bern, N. C., April 15.—Robert Hancock has been appointed acting postmaster here on request of the personal bondsmen of the late Seymour W. Hancock. Mr. Hancock has for many years been assistant postmaster and the office will continue as at present. Mr. Hancock is also an applicant for the position of postmaster and has strong backing from his friends for the place.

Washington, D. C., April 15.—State Republicans are trying to unite on a candidate for the judgeship, and for this reason the friends of Thomas Settle have taken hope. They believe that he would come nearer than any of the rest of the Republican candidates in polling the strength of all factions. It does not appear, however, that the Butler-Pritchard-Duncan faction is manifesting any disposition to abandon its support of Seawell. Before leaving Washington, the President inquired of a North Carolina visitor about Judge Brown and Connor and Frank Fuller, all of which shows that he has a Democrat under consideration. They are regarded as the favorites in the contest here in Washington.

Boston, Mass., April 15.—The lengthy litigation against relatives of the late Andrew J. Davis, the wealthy Montana mine owner, by Mrs. Eva A. Ingersoll, of Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., widow of the late Col. Robert G. Ingersoll, ended today when Judge Wm. L. Putnam in the United States Circuit Court, handed down a final decree awarding Mrs. Ingersoll $138,810, with interest and costs. Following the death of Mr. Davis certain of his relatives engaged Colonel Ingersoll to break Mr. Davis' will, making a contract by which they were to pay him $100,000. After Colonel Ingersoll died, his widow, as administratrix, endeavored to collect this amount from the Davis relatives, who contested the case, claiming that the full services called for by the contract had not been performed. The case was fought through the courts until Mrs. Ingersoll's victory today.

Toronto, Ont., April 16.—A special from Edmonton, Alberta, says: Reports from Fort Chippewa state as a result of the failure of the fur crop the Indians are slowly starving to death. Many are merely skeletons and are lying huddled together in the teepees.

Norfolk, Va., April 16.—The large fertilizer plant of the Imperial Company at Money Point was destroyed by fire early today. The loss is $100,000 to $125,000, fully insured. The cause of the fire has not been ascertained.

Minneapolis, Minn., April 16.—With the signing of the anti-cigarette bill by Governor Johnson, the cigarette slaughter sale is on in Minneapolis, and from this time until the finish, August 1, every dealer of the independent variety will aim to get rid of his stock. There will be no standard price, but dealers will sell at any figure they see fit.

Pittsboro, N. C., April 16.—The abutment at the east approach of the new covered bridge over Haw river at Moore's Mill, five miles southeast of here, gave away today while J. G. Griffin, a rural milk carrier, was crossing it, dropping him and his horse a distance of about twenty-five feet, landing them in the water. Mr. Griffin was painfully hurt and his horse badly injured. The mail was kept intact. This is a new bridge, and was received by the commissioners in "good condition" not more than three months ago.

Washington, D. C., April 16.—Senator Aldrich is keeping the Senate in idleness until he gets ready to report a tariff bill. Twice this week the boss of the Senate has asked that body to adjourn over so as to give him time to perfect his measure, and he now announces that he will be ready to make his report next Monday, when consideration of the tariff by the Senate will be undertaken. In the meantime the Senators whose votes will be given to make the Aldrich measure a law are in ignorance as to all of its provisions. Only a part of the schedules have been made public.

St. Louis, Mo., April 16.—James Sheppard Cabanne, seven years old, the youngest son of a famous St. Louis family, was kidnapped from in front of the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Julia C. Cabanne, in the most fashionable district of the city yesterday. There was no clue as to his whereabouts save a telephone message from an unidentified man saying that the lad had been taken to Louisville. Shortly before midnight Mrs. Cabanne, almost distracted, summoned the police and put the matter in their hands. The authorities of Louisville and Memphis have been notified and will keep on the lookout for the boy. Barring the possibility that he is in the hands of abductors who will try a repetition of the Whitla case, it is a theory of the police that the kidnapping is due to domestic troubles.

Norfolk, Va., April 16.—Mabel Johnson, charged with the killing of her husband, Louis Johnson, February 19, was acquitted today, the trial jury in the Corporation Court returning a verdict at noon after a consideration of ten minutes. The woman said her husband came home intoxicated after having been out all night and that when she sought to take from him a pistol which he insisted on carrying from the house with him, the weapon was accidentally discharged. John Mills, a negro, said the woman stood six feet away and shot Johnson. This was offset by the testimony of Detective Wright, who said powder stains were on the man's clothing where the bullet entered. The woman thanked the jury and departed with friends.

BARGE WRECKED.

One Drowned on Boat Crowded With Negroes at Wilmington.

Wilmington, N. C., April 17.—Crowded from stem to stern with between forty and fifty negro laborers from the Almont guano factory up the Northeast river, returning to the city from their day's work, a passenger barge used for this purpose and in tow of the tug Lillie, in command of Captain H. H. Hall, fouled one of the piers as the barge was passing under the Hilton bridge yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock, with the result that the cabin of the craft was torn off and a score or more of the negro laborers had to take refuge on the superstructure of the bridge.

A few minutes later a Seaboard Air Line train passed over the bridge, creating a panic among the negroes, part of whom jumped overboard, one, Robert Hooper, being drowned.

HIGH INDUSTRIAL PARADE.

Southern Railroad Makes Special Rates on Shipment of Floats.

Charlotte, N. C., April 17.—The transportation committee of the twentieth of May celebration asked the Southern Railroad for a special rate on the shipment of floats to Charlotte from points in North and South Carolina, Georgia and Virginia. The matter was taken up with the proper officials and in a few days later the special rates from all territory covered by the Southern classification, which covers the entire South.

It is expected that both the Seaboard Air Line and the Southern Railroads will announce special passenger rates to Charlotte on account of the celebration within a very short time. Both roads will operate as many special trains to Charlotte as may be found necessary.

Special attractions during the week will be a battalion of infantry from Fort McPherson, Ga., a troop of cavalry from Fort Oglethorpe and a military band all of which the War Department has ordered sent to Charlotte as an escort to President Taft.

ASK BRYAN TO SPEAK.

Florida Legislature Asks Democratic Leader to Reply to Clark.

Tallahassee, Fla., April 16.—Following the address of Congressman Frank Clark on the floor of the lower house of the Florida legislature, in defense of his speech denouncing William J. Bryan in Congress, the house today adopted a resolution inviting Mr. Bryan to speak to the legislature during the present session. The Senate concurred and a telegraphic invitation was sent Mr. Bryan.

$20,000 Fire in Charlotte.

Charlotte, N. C., April 17.—The five-story building of C. A. Black was burned today. Twelve horses, a number of vehicles and a quantity of feedstuff were burned. The loss will approximate $20,000.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because it deceives. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart trouble, apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away call by call.

Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you may make a mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and aching pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both free by mail, Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Singham, N. Y. When writing mention this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Singham, N. Y. on every bottle.

NEARBY NEWS BRIEFLY TOLD.

Anybody knowing the whereabouts of Andrew Perry, colored, and will notify the authorities at Zebulon, will receive their thanks, for the negro outwitted the police of the town. Handcuffed, chained and locked in the guard house near the very center of the town, he effected his escape a few minutes after 7 p. m., in the twilight when many people were moving on the streets.

Governor Kitchin yesterday received a letter from the secretary of the National Conference of Charities and Correction requesting him to appoint delegates to represent North Carolina at the thirty-sixth annual session of the conference, to be held in Buffalo, N. Y., June 9 to 16.

The State Department of Agriculture in the institute work this summer will impress upon the farmers of the State the importance and necessity of growing crops and making products in this State that are now imported from other states, thereby forming a heavy drain on North Carolina's wealth, impeding the progress of agriculture and keeping thousands of farmers impoverished.

Capt. Earle I. Brown, captain corps engineers, United States Army, met with a committee of Beaufort men Wednesday of last week to discuss harbor improvement, and particularly the proposed improvement connecting Beaufort directly with the inland waterway now under construction; also as to the advisability of making Cape Lookout Cove a harbor of refuge.

The State's Prison authorities yesterday issued notice of the escape of five convicts.

The Snow Hill Laconic tells of the death of a centenarian in Greene county this week. Mrs. Mary West, who was born in 1807, one hundred and two years ago. Think of what progress the world and especially the country has made during the lifetime of this woman. Even matches were not invented in her early days, there were no railroads, very little mail service, no telegraph or telephone. She lived across a century marking an age of the greatest progress and development the world has ever known.

At the home of his daughter, Mrs. B. Taylor, of Lumber Edge, near Fayetteville, Mr. David Ward died Wednesday night of paralysis, after an illness of two weeks, aged 87 years. Mr. Ward did good service to the South in the war between the states, and has crossed the river and is resting under the shade of the trees.

Change of Boundaries of Voting Precincts.

At a meeting of the County Board of Elections of Wayne County, North Carolina, held in Goldsboro on Monday, the 5th day of April, 1909, at 12 o'clock, m., all members being present, it was ordered that the boundary lines of Precincts No. 3 and 4 as now existing for the State and County elections in Goldsboro Township, be changed to conform in every particular to the boundary lines said Wards, No. 3 and 4, as set out in the Charter of the City of Goldsboro, in section 3 of chapter 297, of the Private Laws of North Carolina session 1901. That is, the boundary lines of Precinct No. 3 in the City and County elections shall be as follows:

"Beginning at the center of intersection of William street and Chestnut street, and runs thence southerly with the center of William street, and an extension thereof, to the southern boundary line of the corporate limits of said city; thence with said boundary line westerly to the southwestern corner in said boundary line northerly to a point opposite to the center of said Chestnut street extended; then easterly to and with the center of said street to the beginning."

"The boundary line of Precinct No. 4 in the State and County elections shall be as follows:

"Beginning at the beginning point of the Third Precinct and runs thence southerly with the center of William street, and the line of the Third Precinct to the southern boundary line of the corporate limits of said city; thence with said boundary line to the southeastern corner in said boundary line; then with said boundary line northerly in its various courses to a point opposite to the center of Chestnut street extended on the east; then westerly to and with the center of said street to the beginning."

I was further ordered as follows that whereas the County Board of Elections in their meeting on September 7, 1908, passed an order dividing Fort Township into two Precincts, known as No. 1 and No. 2, with the understanding that if it did not meet with general satisfaction, it should be restored after the election.

Now there, the Board being of the opinion that to continue said division is unwise, it is therefore ordered that the said division be done away with and that there shall be only one precinct in Fort Township, that is, that the polling place and boundary of said Township that existed during the State and County general election of 1906 be restored.

REMOVES S.S.S. BLOOD HUMORS

Every pore and gland of the skin is employed in the necessary work of preserving its smooth, even texture, softening and cleansing it, and regulating the temperature of our bodies. This is done by an evaporation through each tiny outlet, which goes on continually day and night. When the blood becomes infected with humors and acids a certain percentage of these impurities also pass off with the natural evaporation, and their sour, fiery natures irritate and inflame the skin, and drives up its natural oils, causing pimples, boils, pustules or some itching rash, or hard, scaly skin condition. S.S.S. cures skin troubles of every kind by neutralizing the acids and removing the humors from the blood. S.S.S. cools the acid-heated circulation, builds it up to its normal strength and thickness, multiplies its instead of being irritated and diseased by the exuding acid matter, is nourished, soothed and softened by this cooling, healthy stream of blood. S.S.S., the greatest of blood purifiers, expels all foreign matter and cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum and all other diseases and affections of the skin. It removes pimples, blackheads, and other unsightly blemishes from the skin and assists in restoring a good complexion. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice desired free to all who write.
